OCTOBER 2025 MONTHLY UPDATE

Complete the Workday Student Survey

The Workday Student Project Team wants your input! You may have recently been invited to take the Workday Student Survey by your department or college leadership. All faculty and staff are encouraged to participate.

Please take a few minutes to complete the survey and share your feedback as we prepare for the Workday Student transition. The survey closes October 10.

Workday Updates – September Release

Workday rolled out its second bi-annual update with improvements to navigation and efficiency:

- Menu Enhancements – Menu items now appear as icons on the left side of your screen. Use the gear icon at the bottom to customize or switch back to the dropdown menu.
- Homepage Updates – “Top Apps” has been replaced by Quick Actions under the “Hello There” section, making it easier to access tools like the new absence calendar.
- Finance Updates – Several finance-related improvements were also included. Visit the B&F Workday Resources webpage for full details.

September Project Update and Recap

On September 24, faculty and staff joined in person and online for a Workday Student Project Update. Attendees learned about recent accomplishments, key design decisions, upcoming priorities, and had the opportunity to ask questions. The Project Team will continue to host regular update sessions, along with ongoing communications, to keep the campus community informed throughout the project.

In case you missed it, you may view the presentation recording on the Workday Student Project Updates webpage.

Learning to Speak Workday: Student Financials Workstream

Each month, we'll share key terms to help you get familiar with the language of the Workday project.

The Workday Student Implementation Student Financials Workstream focuses on supporting billing, payments, and student account management in Workday.
